ALFIE'S CABERNET MERLOT 2014

In a nutshell

Margaret River really is the home of great Australian Cabernet blends and this is why: lifted blackcurrant fruit mingling with some vanilla French oak notes announce the arrival of what is a classic medium-bodied dry red wine. The palate is filled with dark berry fruits, hints of cedar and spice with a gentle earthiness pointing to the provenance from whence it came. The tannins are silk-like and velvety in nature making the finish smooth, rich and rewarding.

The year that was

The 2014 vintage in Margaret River has been built on a truly sound foundation and experienced truly 'classic' Margaret River weather. The autumn was milder which was perfect for our Cabernet Sauvignon enabling full physiological development and concentrating its flavour spectrum and softening tannin levels naturally.

Grown in

Margaret River, Western Australia.
