JACK'S CHARDONNAY 2016

In a nutshell

Margaret River is world famous for making some of Australia's greatest Chardonnay wines and this is no exception. The bouquet is positively peachy with plenty of white stonefruit characters bursting out of the glass. The palate is textured with mineral elements and just a hint of vanillin French oak influence. The finish is long and beautifully balanced by cleansing acidity.

The year that was

A late spike in the temperature prior to an early harvest ensured that the 2016 vintage in Margaret River was a stunner for Chardonnay and resulted in lovely acid structure and concentration of flavours.

Grown in

Margaret River, Western Australia.
